

OYO Camp Rules

The physical safety and emotional well-being of every camp participant is a primary concern of OYO Camp. It is extremely important to us that all participants clearly understand our standards and expectations. Our basic camp philosophy is simple, "Treat others the way you want to be treated". We believe that every person at camp deserves to be treated with dignity, respect and compassion.

Honor yourself and what makes you "YOU"

Respect other people

Do not harm yourself

Do not harm others

Do not damage property

Value nature and your environment

Respect and accept each individual's chosen way of communicating